

Best of You 2016 Participant Agreement

Your legal pledge:

I understand that I am entering into a legal contract with Jill Coleman Fitness, sole-proprietor, in which I am obligated and under contract to carry out. I understand that there will be no refunds granted, under any circumstances, and I understand that should I opt to finance my investment, I will make good on all 12 payments, regardless of what goes on over the next 12 months, including not being able to complete the work, becoming disenchanted, getting “busy” or deciding to move in a different direction. I understand that this is not a cancel-anytime model and that a financing option is an obligation and privilege I am agreeing to. I understand that if I have even the tiniest bit of reluctance or inkling that I may drop out, that I should not have applied.

I understand that upon purchasing this membership, I am making a legal commitment to complete the 11-month program and the above chosen payments as stated on my application. I understand that my first payment (or pay-in-full) will be deducted on January 4, 2016, and according to terms of my financing arrangement (if applicable), each payment will be deducted on the 4th of the month thereafter, for the full 12-month period.

I agree to the above, and I am ready to invest fully, mind, heart and spirit to the process:
